Fakebook: Fictional Social Profile

The screenshot shows the Fakebook interface on ClassTools.net. At the top left is the ClassTools.net logo. In the top right corner, there is a yellow circular button with the text "Click here to add a cover image!". The main header area has a blue background with the word "fakebook" in white and red lowercase letters. Below it, the text "Create a fake profile for a fictional / historical character" is displayed. On the left side of the header, there is a placeholder for a profile picture (a white silhouette on a grey square) and a text input field labeled "Name here". To the right of the profile picture, there is a tip: "TIP: Like any pictures in this page, just click to change it! e.g. Search Google for 'Facebook cover images'". Below the header, there is a "Save" button. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column has a section titled "About" with three bullet points: "Born: CLICK HERE TO ADD!", "Family: CLICK HERE TO ADD!", and "(edit and add as many lines as you like!)". Below this is a section titled "Sponsored Links" with a text input field. The right column has a section titled "Add a post!" with two tips: "(TIP 1: You can add hyperlinks and links to YouTube/Vimeo videos too!)" and "(TIP 2: You can click on any image that appears to change it!)". Below the tips, there are input fields for "Name" (with a placeholder "Name....") and "Date" (with a placeholder "earlier today...."). Below these is a text area for "Write something....". At the bottom right of the post area, there is a camera icon and a "Post" button.
